

A new partnership for the future of health

For you, your practice and our community

A healthy future

Health care is undergoing rapid changes. Legacy Health Partners is here to help your practice successfully navigate these changes.

Legacy Health Partners (LHP) is a partnership between independent private practice physicians, Legacy Health and Legacy Medical Group. It is a continuation of Legacy's collaborative approach to physician engagement and alignment.

We believe that LHP will assist you, your practice and Legacy Health with changes in health care, while also helping your patients and our community achieve better health.
